Governor Ted Strickland
Pro-Second Amendment
Pro-Hunting

As Congressman and Governor, Ted Strickland has been an unwavering supporter of our Second Amendment rights. The National Rifle Association has always rated Strickland an "A."[1]

Ted and his brother Roger have enjoyed the outdoors their whole lives.

In 1994, Ted Strickland voted AGAINST the Clinton Gun Ban and received an A+ from the NRA.

Ted Strickland A+

"Strickland has a perfect voting record on firearms issues and deserves gun owners' support...Strickland pledged to work with NRA to protect gun owners' rights, and he has kept his word."[2]

In 1994, John Kasich voted FOR the Clinton Gun Ban and earned an F from the NRA.

John Kasich F

"Favors extremely restrictive legislation and/or actively leads anti-gun efforts."[2]

When it comes to gun owners' rights, John Kasich has been off the mark.[3]
